Note: M. Saeed Anwer, my neighbor in 33-Broome hostel is one of the most pleasant, humorous, and talented but self-effacing men I have ever known. His artistic drawings particularly of bones during our anatomy classes were very popular among our classmates. He is an excellent writer. During our college years, he mostly wrote under the pseudonym of Saeeda Anwer. His very popular short stories were published in many magazines in Pakistan. He had one of the most admirable physique and was crowned Mr. KEMC in 1970. It has been a blessing to have Saeed as one of my best friends. He made our KE days so much fun. Bashir Chaudhary
